UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT*TO : Chief, Intelligence SchoolDATE: 28 January 1958FROM : OTR Orientation OfficerSUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #55
22 January to 28 January 1958DEPARTMENTAL BRIEFING

On 28 January this program was conducted for a total of 74 persons from Army (ACSI, Personnel, Special Warfare, Map Service), Navy, Air Force, State, NSA, and USIA. The total also includes four CIA persons--one from OCI and three from MPD, Personnel Office. The Army Map Service nominated 23 persons to attend the briefing this time. General Cabell opened the program with a word of welcome.

MISCELLANEOUS

1. The CIA Introduction was not held this week. The number scheduled was too small, and [redacted] asked if it would be possible to cancel the whole day's orientation.

2. All Agency speakers but one have been lined up for the Forty-Fourth Class of the Strategic Intelligence School, which begins on 11 February. We are awaiting word from Mr. Kirkpatrick as to whether he will be in the country on the scheduled date of his presentation. As soon as we hear from his office, a memo will be prepared for the DTR's signature.

3. A call was received from Mr. Rivinus, Course Chairman of the Mid-Career Course on Foreign Affairs, FSI, requesting that CIA, on 6 and 7 March, repeat for the current class the two-day set of briefings first presented as an integral part of this course last December.
